"THE SPEED BOY"

One-Reel Universal Comedy
Starring LEWIS SARGENT

LEW, the messenger boy, is impressed into service as "Willy Smith," supposed son of a childless couple who have been receiving considerable sums of money from a wealthy aunt who intends to visit Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Laura, Lew's girl, seeing him dressed in a Lord Fauntleroy suit, races to the Western Union office and reports to the boss that Lew, their prize A. D. T., has been kidnapped.

The aunt arrives and everything is running fairly smooth. She has promised to settle $5,000 on "Willy," when his wig falls off. The aunt becomes indignant at the conspiracy and marches out of the house. Her sympathies are aroused by Lew and Laura, however, and she gives Lew the $5,000 she had promised the fictitious "Willy Smith."
